

Alberta Genealogical Society, Edmonton Branch
Course: Tracing Your Family Tree
Fall 2010 Information

Interested in tracing your family tree? Experienced volunteer instructors share their knowledge and expertise in genealogical research. You will learn how to dig up your family roots, climb the branches and avoid common pitfalls.

AGS Edmonton Branch will offer three Saturday workshops:

1. October 2: Getting started. Learn the basics of how to gather, record & organize your information.
2. November 6: Sources in genealogy. Learn about main sources of genealogical information: civil, religious, census, immigration, probate (wills) and land records.
3. December 4: Using Libraries, archives and databases in genealogy.

Time:

Sessions will run from 10 am to 3 pm, (10 am - 3:30 pm on Dec. 4) with an half hour lunch break. Bring your own lunch; coffee, tea & juice provided.

Fees:

Members $75 Non-members $90 for package of 3 workshops. No refunds. Register early as places are limited.

Location:

Offered at our facility in Nexus Business Park (address below). Parking available.

Registration:

If you are interested in the next set of workshops that will be offered, please contact us at Alberta Genealogical Society, Edmonton Branch Library and Office
#162, 14315 - 118 Avenue, Edmonton
Phone: 780-424-4429 Fax: 780-423-8980

Registration by phone, fax or in person at the Library (above mentioned address). Please download and print registration form at <<http://abgensoc.ca/branches.html#ED>>.